Read the text and circle the correct answers. (3'5 points)

My name is Ana. This is my first time in London. I work in a café from eight in the morning to five in the evening. I meet people from many countries. I like my job because I love talking to people, but I don't like working in the evenings.

After work, I take English classes in a school near my flat. There are people from all over the world. My best friend Sidra is from Pakistan and she is in my class. We share a flat. Sidra cooks delicious curries and I cook Spanish meals, my speciality is paella because I am from Valencia.

I never work on Sundays so I usually go cycling along the river or I sometimes go to the gym. But I also need to do the shopping and clean my room because the rest of the week I am always very busy.

I am very happy to be here. London is a good city to learn English.
